Beacon Light offers a wide variety of therapeutic and behavioral health for children, adults and families. , such as behavioral specialist consultants, mobile therapy and therapeutic support staff—for children and adolescents (and their families) up to age 21 who have a diagnosed mental health condition and a psychological recommendation for the services. Additionally, a Residential Treatment Facility (RTF) provides care for out- of- home placement at several homes/facilities located throughout Pennsylvania based on the young client's need.

Intensive Behavioral Health Services-Group & Individual Program (formerly CSBBH)

Beacon Light Behavioral Health System
At Cameron County Jr./Sr. High School

601 Woodland Ave.
Emporium, PA 15834....(814) 507-1600...Fax (814) 507-1601

The Intensive Behavioral Health Services Team complements school-district interventions, such as the district prevention programs, educationally-based emotional and behavioral support programs, and other types of community services. When a student could use more support, a referral is made to the Team. School personnel will contact parents to get permission for students to be seen by the counselor. After permission is given, a mental health professional will meet with the family and student to get some background information and complete an assessment and develop a treatment plan. Parents are an active part of the care team.
